Business Idea:

EDD is the world's first Emotional Due Diligence for start-up and innovation teams.

The digital tool places success-relevant traits in a corresponding benchmark context and thus allows a success forecast based on personal characteristics. As a well-founded team analysis, EDD serves as a supplement to any tech, financial and legal due diligence.

Target groups:

- Private and institutional investors, business angels, accelerators, incubators, family offices, venture capitalists, ...
- M&A und Change Management
- Banks and Insurances
- Start-up and innovation teams themselves
